

Mrs. Bette Holub, Tuition Manager is in her 10th year on staff at Saint Frances Academy. Mrs. Holub started her college career at Towson University. After three semesters she moved to Plattsburgh Air Force Base with her husband and obtained her A.A.S. from Clinton College, Plattsburgh, NY. After moving back to her home state of Maryland she worked in R&D for Proctor & Gamble for over a decade and became a mom. Once her son was in kindergarten she went to work for the Catholic school system at Seton Keough High School where she and Dr. Turner started within days of each other. After working in the Business Office at SKHS for almost 9 years she got a call from Dr. Turner that there was an opening at SFA. She deals with all items that pertain to student tuition, financial aid and scholarships.
